Primula Malacoides

A new species from China. It is fairly loaded down with flowers of a very pretty shade of light lilac. They are borne in clusters on long, slender but wiry, stems, the individual flowers are one-half to three-fourths inch across. The foliage is very attractive, making a handsome setting for the flowers. As a pot plant or for cut flowers it is of the greatest value.

Price, strong plants, 15 cents each; 3 for 40 cents. 3-inch pot plants ready for 4-inch, 35 cents; 3 for $1.00.

Ever-Blooming

Primula Obconica

Always in bloom. This is a charming new plant for winter. In fact, we know of none that is better adapted to home culture than this one. It is not susceptible to changes of temperature that most plants are subject to. It bears its elegant panicles and sprays of bloom of a delicate pink and white, in the greatest profusion. It is certainly elegant.

15 Best Single Named Hyacinths 15

Price, 15 cents each; any 6 for 75 cents; any 12 of any kind for $1.40,
BY MAIL OR EXPRESS, PREPAID

For winter and early spring flowering nothing surpasses the Hyacinth. It is sure to bloom and give satisfaction in the house during winter, or in the garden in early spring. Its large spikes resemble nothing in cultivation. Rather than offer a large confusing list of varieties, we have selected fourteen each of Singles and Doubles, embracing all the shades of this flower, each one being the largest, strongest and best of its color.

All Single Hyacinths succeed well in glasses and when forced. We consider the Single Hyacinth more useful and valuable than the Double varieties. They are better for forcing, more vigorous in growth, and produce stronger spikes of bloom, which are generally of better substance and are, at least, as beautiful as those of the Double sort.

HERMAN—Yellow, early, a splendid sort.

LA FRANCHISE—Lovely blush-white, very large bells.

GRANDEUR A MERVILLE—Finest cream-white, large spike.

GIGANTEA—Fine pink. The name indicates its character, being a giant spike.

MORENO—Extra fine pink; very large bells and spike.

JOHAN—Very fine; French gray.

ROI DE BELGES—Extra glossy red.

YELLOW HAMMER—Golden yellow, fine, large spikes.

KING OF THE BLUES—Rich, dark blue, the finest of the blues, extra large; well furnished, broad spike with large bells erect; fine for pots.

ALBERTINE—Pure white, very large, compact spike; fine for forcing.

GRAND MAITRE—Deep porcelain-blue; one of the grandest of all blues.

LA PEROUSE—Light blue. Fine for beds and forcing. Very large, compact spike and large bells. Grand.

LORD DERBY—Very fine porcelain-blue.

GERTRUDE—Fine red; large compact truss; splendid for bedding, as it stands very erect; first-class for forcing.

L'INNOCENCE—Pure snow-white; extra fine.

Freesia Purity.

Freesia Purity

For winter blooming in the house it is most popular. The splendid blossoms are borne in great profusion; color pure white, lower petals touched with yellow. Four to six bulbs can be planted in a 5-inch pot, box or pan, and grown like other bulbs. By planting at intervals from September to November, a succession of flowers can be had throughout the winter. We offer the largest and finest bulbs. An improvement over the Freesia Refracta Alba. Price, 3 for 10c; 12 for 35c.

Oxalis.

The points of merit that commend this family of Hyacinths to us are many. First, they are early—can be brought into bloom for the holidays, a season when flowers are scarce. Second, they throw up several large spikes of bloom to the bulb. Third, they are so easy of culture, once planted they take care of themselves. Try a set. They can be planted at intervals of two or three weeks apart, and you have flowers all through the winter.

WHITE—Has elegant waxy-white bells of great beauty and fragrance.

BLUE—Lovely light blue, a fine contrast to the white variety.

LIGHT PINK—Extra fine for forcing.

DARK ROSE—Deep pink.

Choice Early Flowering Tulips

Such varieties marked * are forcing.

Tulips are such universal favorites that it is scarcely necessary to say much upon their merits here. Their ease of culture, combined with beauty of form and gorgeous coloring, render them the most popular bulbs grown for spring bedding, and for winter flowering in the greenhouse and window gardens they are incomparable. The Tulip is extremely hardy and of easy culture, flowering as freely in the shade as in the sunshine, and producing as fine flowers in a confined town garden as in a more favored place. Double and Single Tulips, when associated together and planted in front of shrubs, maintain a longer display than if either are separately planted. In gardens where the flower beds must be kept gay from the earliest day of spring plant them between the lines of Tulips, Scilla Sibirica, Chionodoxa Lucillae, Snowdrops or Crocus, and as these flower first they can be removed or cut down when the Tulip is coming into bloom. The Single Tulip has a greater variety of rich, delicate and attractive colors than any other section of spring flowering bulbs. The Single Tulip is extensively grown for indoor decoration, three or five bulbs in a pot.

Hardy, and do well through all sorts of weather.

MACROSPILA—Red; very fine for bedding.

The new Giant Darwin Tulips are late May-flowering Garden Tulips, and produce very large bowl-formed flowers of symmetrical shape and lasting wax-like substance, on all, strong stems, two to three feet high, and are exceedingly beautiful and effective grown in groups, in the shrubbery or herbaceous border, or in gardens with a background of greenery. They by far surpass in color and brilliancy anything before known in Tulips. They include almost every conceivable color and shade.

BARONNE DE LA TONNAYE—A long and beautiful flower; clear carmine-rose at the midrib, toning off to soft pink at the edges; base white, tinged blue; height 24 inches. DAFFODILS Sweet Harbinger of Spring NARCISSUS

NOTE—We wish to say to our friends that the different varieties of Narcissus force into bloom in the house during winter as readily as the Hyacinths. There is nothing finer in the flower line for this purpose; indeed, they are our choice of all winter-flowering bulbs—they are so graceful and pretty. We can especially recommend for house culture the varieties preceded by a star (*). All Narcissus and Jonquils are hardy except the Polyanthus varieties and Chinese Sacred Narcissus, and these are hardy in the North protected by a covering of manure.

LILIES FOR FALL PLANTING

All herbaceous borders should have a few Lilies scattered through them. The sorts offered below can be planted with excellent results during the early fall months. It is in the hardy border that Lilies do best, as they get the benefit of the shade of the surrounding plants, which is so necessary for their welfare; other varieties should be planted in the autumn, and are offered in our autumn catalogue. The soil for Lilies should be moderately rich, fairly light and well drained. Water should not be allowed to stand about the bulbs or plants during winter or early spring. Plant September to April. Spade the soil well; make a base of well-rotted manure six inches below the surface, cover the soil and plant bulbs so they will be just under the surface. Do not let bulbs touch the manure.

LILY OF THE VALLEY—These beautiful fairy-like Lilies delight all. Choose a partially shaded place in the garden and plant the roots about six inches apart and two inches deep. For winter blooming, pot in December and place outside in a shady place, allow them to freeze once or twice, then bring them into the house, where they can be forced into bloom in a short time. If you wish them for Easter start them in February. Choice pips, 7c each; 75 dozen.

Please Notice—Our importation of Lily of the Valley will arrive about the middle of November, which is as early as they are received in this country.

AURATUM (Gold-Banded Lily.)—Large, graceful flowers, composed of six petals of a delicate ivory-white, thickly studded with chocolate-crimson spots and striped through the center a golden-yellow. Price, 40c each; three for $1.10.

DECORATIVE FERNS

ANY FERN LISTED AT 50 CENTS CAN BE BOUGHT THREE FOR $1.35.

Nephrolepis Sparrowii

We take great pleasure in offering to our customers this new and valuable variety a true sport of the Neph. Superbissima (or Fluffy Ruffles) Fern. It has the dark green foliage of its parent, which, with its beautiful crested fronds, makes it a most unique, distinct and desirable Fern. One of the most distinguishable features of this new Fern is its robustness, which makes it a very rapid and easy grower, a Fern the amateur can grow with success. We recommend this new variety most highly. Price, young plants, 30c; larger plants, 70c.

Nephrolepis Sparrowii

The Popular Boston Sword Fern

(Nephrolepis Exaltata Bostoniensis.)

In the vicinity of Boston no other plant is used so extensively as this graceful Nephrolepis, which differs from the ordinary Fern in having much longer fronds, which frequently attain a length of four feet. These fronds arch and droop over very gracefully on account of which it is frequently called the Fountain Fern. Price nice plants, 20 cents each; larger size, 50 cents.

Nephrolepis Whitmanii Compacta

Identical with Whitmanii except more dwarf; fronds are much larger and broader and fluffy on both sides. Indeed a handsome plant. Price, 20c each; large specimen plants out of 4-inch pots, 50c each.

New Fern

"ROOSEVELT"

Introduced as "The Greatest Fern of the Age."—Resembles the Boston Fern, with two points of great excellence over that variety. First, it produces many more fronds, making it a bushier and handsomer plant; then the pinnae are undulated, giving it a pronounced wavy effect seen in no other Fern. Fine young plants, 20c each. Specimen plants, 50c each.

Fern Whitmanii Compacta

"Baby's Breath Fern"

(Nephrolepis Goodii)—This has the finest foliage of all the Ferns. It is so delicate that a lady on seeing it exclaimed, "Call it the Baby's Breath Fern, as it is so dainty in texture that a baby's breath would set its fluffy foliage in motion." The fronds are very fine and filmy, on which account it has been called by some the Lace Fern. It is an improved variety and the best of its type. Our reputation for it is that no Fern in existence can compare with "Baby's Breath" in fluffiness. Fine young plants, 20c; strong plants, 50c.

Grand New Dwarf Roosevelt Fern "Teddy Junior"

(The Fern for every household)—Fronds are broad and beautifully tapered from base to tip; they droop just enough to make a shapely, graceful plant. "Teddy" will produce about four times more fronds than any other Fern ever introduced. A plant of rare beauty and perfection in the average dwelling house without special care or attention. As a table decoration. Fern growers can appreciate the commercial value of a dwarf variety that will produce 40 to 50 fronds 12 to 15 inches long, in a four-inch pot. Young plants, 20c. Specimen plants, 50c each.

Nephrolepis John Wanamaker

"The Wanamaker Boston Fern"

A "sport" from Nephrolepis Scholzei, with longer, narrower, gracefully drooping fronds. It is not so compact in growth as Scholzei, and, therefore, does not decay in the center, and is a durable house Fern. It is a rapid grower, making an abundance of fronds, and is quite distinct from any other Nephrolepis. Young plants, 25c; Specimen plants, 60c.

Crusader This new red Rose is a splendid grower, produces good stems, and is very free in bloom. Its color is a very deep crimson, overlaid velvety crimson, shading to vermilion toward the edges. The nearest approach to a black Rose. Buds long and pointed on stout stems, opening full and double, each one coming to perfection, and produced in marvelous profusion throughout the entire season. Plants make a gorgeous sight, owing to the brightness of the blooms, and the luster of the foliage, being entirely free from mildew. Claimed to be the finest red Rose in existence at the present time.

Madame Butterfly Is Hill's glorified sport of Ophelia. Seen and admired by thousands. All the color tones of Ophelia are intensified, making it a harmony of bright pink, apricot and gold. Ophelia ranks at the top in popularity and Madame Butterfly will surpass it. It averages more petals to the bloom; it produces more bloom to the plant because it makes more branches, every one carrying a bud. The tight buds are a lovely shade of Indian oak, yellow at the base; they are unique for corsages and for low table decorations; the opening flowers are perfect in form and texture, clear and brilliant in color and of delicious fragrance.

Golden Ophelia This new yellow Rose is a seedling from the universal favorite Ophelia. It is a sturdy, stiff stemmed grower, with beautiful foliage, quite closely set and glossy. This flower is of medium size, from a beautifully formed bud of bright golden yellow. Very free bloomer, and free from disease, a Rose that the rank amateur could grow. We are very enthusiastic over this beautiful true yellow variety, which will rank high in its class.

Frank W. Dunlap Did you see it at the International Flower Show at New York the past spring? Its record at the exhibition, winning silver medal for the best new pink Rose, gold sweepstakes medal for the best seedling in the show. Frank W. Dunlap was the finest flower in the exhibition. Claimed to be better than Mrs. Charles Russell.

White Ophelia This new white sport of Ophelia is destined to the front rank among the white Roses; it produces a large flower with more petals than the parent, and has the same qualities of growth and constitution. Owing to the stiff, beautifully formed outer petals, it holds the bud form long, and the golden stamens add to the beauty of the opening flower. The color is white, sometimes showing a day-break pink in the center on opening, but infinitely whiter than white Killarney. Blooms very freely, and is free from mildew. We are sure our trade will welcome this new white Rose.

Mrs. Henry Winnett This is a seedling raised by John H. Dunlap of Canada, and has the distinction of being the first seedling Rose of Canadian origin that has been offered in commerce. In color it is a bright shade of crimson, not so dark as Hadley, and not so light as Richmond. It is a color that pleases the retail storeman and his patrons. The finest of all red or crimson varieties.

Mrs. Chas. Russell (H. T.) This wonderful new American Rose has taken the country by storm; no other forcing Rose except American Beauty can compete with it when it comes to counting points. A bunch of three dozen blooms carried perfectly from Boston to Springfield; stems three feet long, stiff and surmounted by grand rosy-pink blooms of the largest size and build.

Robin Hood (H. T.) This new Rose has a glorious rosy-scarlet color, soft, bright and lasting; bloom is full and of the beautiful build of the H. P.'s. A grand grower, heavy caned, profuse foliage; flowers freely produced. This will prove a delightful companion for Gen. McArthur and Rhea Reid.

Crusader

Rose Premier A cross between Ophelia Russell. It has the stiff, thornless stem and quick, free growth of Ophelia, with ample foliage, approaching Ulrich Brunner or American Beauty in arrangement and size of leafage. The habit is perfect for either a forcing or bedding Rose. The flowers are of Russell type, and hold a clear, pure shade of rose-pink throughout the year, lighter in summer, and deep rose-pink in cooler weather; a dozen blooms make an imposing bunch. Its freedom of bloom and quick succession of crops make this a most productive Rose. Like Ophelia and Columbia, it is deliciously fragrant. Absolutely distinct and a splendid addition to American varieties.

National Emblem Messrs. McGredy consider this as their greatest effort in their twenty years of hybridizing, and believe it to be the most perfect of all Garden Roses. In color it is a dark crimson, overlaid velvety crimson, shading to vermilion at the edges; the buds are long and pointed, the flowers quite full, every one coming perfect, and are produced with marvelous freedom right through the season.

Columbia It is a big Rose, the open flower measuring six inches across. The color is a true pink, about the shade of a perfect Shawyer, deepening as it opens to glowing pink.

Lady Plymouth

OPHELIA—(H. T.) Ophelia is a fine grower, with big, bright foliage that shows at a glance that it is a variety that will hold its flowers well. It is long stemmed, bushy and free-branching, and a free producer of bloom. It is very fragrant and resembles Richmond in this respect. Color, clear, bright pink, suffused yellow.

MADAME COLLETE MARTINETT (Pernet Ducher, 1916.) A vigorous grower of coppery-orange color. The color is very deep and clear, and holds well, which can be said of few yellow sorts. It is a nice grower, free in bloom, and those wanting a yellow different from "Ward" or "Sunburst" should try this one.

ALEXANDER HILL GRAY—Color is deep lemon-yellow which intensifies as the blooms develop. Flowers large, of great substance and perfect formation; it has a high-pointed center from which the petals gracefully reflex. We recommend it highly.

KILLARNEY BRILLIANT—The introducers are to be congratulated sixteen years after the advent of Killarney in giving us this distinct novelty, which is undoubtedly the best Killarney type. Killarney Brilliant has the same habit of growth and the same freedom of bloom as its parent, while the flower is more double. The color is a very brilliant pink and varies like Killarney. In the garden in bright weather is clear pink and in dull weather almost crimson. Extra.

RED RADIANCE—(Offered for first time.) Similar to Radiance in form and growth, except color, which is fiery scarlet. Excellent garden Rose as well as a good forcer. Form is fine, flower large and fully cupped petals. Splendid healthy foliage.

RED LETTER DAY (Alex. Dickson, 1914.)—An exceedingly beautiful Rose of infinite grace and charm. Its velvety, brilliant, glowing scarlet-crimson buds and fully opened cactus-like flowers never fade, as the reflex of the petals is satiny crimson-scarlet. Awarded S. G. medal, N. R. S.

LADY PLYMOUTH (Alex. Dickson)—A most distinct and meritorious Rose of the "Souvenir de Pierre Notting" type, whose delicate pearly but deep ivory-cream petals are very faintly flushed, giving it a most piquant finish that is difficult to describe. It is delicately pure tea perfumed. Awarded gold medal, N. R. S., and silver medal, Crystal Palace, London.

RADIANCE—Color a brilliant rosy-carmine, displaying beautiful opaline-pink tints in the open flower. The form is fine; flower large and full with cupped petals. A fine variety, especially on account of its value as a summer cut flower variety. Very free in growth and production of bloom, has good habit; lasting qualities of the flowers are wonderful.

FRANCIS SCOTT KEY (The Ideal Garden Rose)—(H.T.) In describing this Rose we might say it is large and very large. Some of the flowers have as high as sixty petals and sometimes more, opening to a very high center. In color it is a most magnificent red. It is very easy to cultivate and requires little or no care. This makes an ideal Rose for your garden, and is extremely showy when a number of these plants are massed together.

MRS. AARON WARD—(H.T.) This Rose is a real joy to the grower and absolutely distinct. Has a color that catches the eye at once. Coppery-orange in the open bud, golden-orange when partly developed, pinkish-fawn of lovely shade when fully open, when it looks like a full fluffy-silk rosette. No wonder everybody that sees it falls in love with it.

CRIMSON QUEEN—Strong, upright grower, flowers large and full. Color a rich bright velvety crimson. A grand garden Rose, as it is always in bloom.

WHITE KILLARNEY—It is a pure white in color, long in bud, of fine form; in fact it is the one Rose par excellence. It is also a great garden Rose.

THE AMERICAN BEAUTY—The Prize Red Rose—Greatest of Them All.

(Hardy June blooming; should be protected.) A hardy Rose of the larger size, having the everblooming qualities of the Tea Rose, with the delicious odor of the Damask or Moss Rose, and equally valuable for winter or summer flowering. The flowers are so eagerly sought that they sell in the larger cities during the holiday season at the extravagant price of from $1.50 to $2.00 for a single bud or flower. In color it is a deep, brilliant rosy-carmine, shaded toward the center with rich carmine-crimson. The back of the outer petal takes the color of lighter dull carmine. The American Beauty is one of the most vigorous Roses we have. It makes the heaviest stems and the largest bush, it not being unusual to see a rampant bush with a dozen canes as thick as one's finger and several feet in height. The American Beauty is unquestionably the most popular Rose now before the public, a popularity due principally to its value as a winter forcing variety. It should be protected out doors in the winter. Sold under positive guarantee as to being true to name. One Year Old Plants, each 30c; Large Two Year Size, each 75c.

HARDY PERENNIAL PLANTS

FOR PERMANENT PLANTING IN BORDERS OR BEDS

Of all the plants that are cultivated for purely ornamental purposes there are none which have made such rapid strides in public favor as the Old-Fashioned Hardy Garden Flowers, the inhabitants of the perennial garden. Their popularity is not at all surprising when we consider the many varied and pleasant changes which take place throughout the entire growing season in a well-arranged hardy border, in which every week—yes, every day—bring forth something fresh and new to interest and delight even the most critical.

Many not thoroughly familiar with this class of plants have an idea that nothing but a large field-grown clump will give satisfactory returns the first season. This, as experience has taught us, is in most instances a mistake. A vigorous plant of proper size will, in nearly every case, give quicker and better returns than the best so-called "field clumps." The majority of the stock offered in this catalogue is pot grown. This does not mean that the plants have been altogether pot-grown, but that they have been field-grown and dug and potted up during the fall months, and such stock can be planted, even late in the spring, with practically no loss, which, in the case of clumps, is often quite serious.

ACHILLEA (The Pearl) (The Great Cemetery Plant.) Flowers pure white, perfectly double and produced in large sprays. For cemetery planting it is the most valuable of all flowers, as it is sure to thrive and bear its great profusion of snow-white flowers nearly the whole summer. 15c each; three for 40c.

ANCHUSA DROPMORE A bold, broad leaved growth, and flower stems 3 to 5 feet high, bearing a continuous show of deep blue flowers from spring until the late summer. The stools are quite dense and bushy, each stem nearly covered full length with double, inch-wide flowers, of the deepest cobalt blue. 15c each; three for 40c.

AQUILEGIA (Columbine) The distinct, clear-cut foliage and delicate arrangement of colors in the flowers of Columbine make it one of the showiest and most desirable of the hardy garden plants; especially suitable for rock-work, at the base of foundation walls and under trees. Bloom in early spring.

CAERULA—The dainty "Rocky Mountain Columbine," blue and white.

CHRYSANTHA—The "Golden Spur" Columbine.

CHRYSANTHA ALBA—Beautiful double white. 15c; three for 40c.

HARDY ASTERS

FRUIT DEPARTMENT

QUALITY specimens have certainly come into the limelight. In any large city you will try, almost in vain, to get edible fruit in quantity; most of it sells at so much "per each," and it usually brings high prices. Neat packing and careful elimination of all unshapely and undersized specimens make a great improvement in the price you'll get for your fruit. One large, handsome apple or pear is worth more than three medium-sized fruits which are specked or bruised. For that reason it pays best to get first-class nursery stock, treat your orchard well, cultivate it often, fertilize it thoroughly, pick and pack carefully. All these things tend to produce better fruit; to get large specimens, some thinning should be done early in the summer.

The modern varieties are far superior to the sorts which our grandparents gathered when they were young. Flavor, size, and productiveness are all points in which the modern sorts excel; only a few of the older apples have been able to compete with the newer introductions.

STRAWBERRIES

If Plants are Set 1½ by 3 Feet, it Will Require 9,680 Plants to an Acre.

Strawberries will succeed in any soil that is adapted to ordinary farm or garden crops. Soil should be thoroughly prepared to a good depth, well drained and enriched. Vegetable manure (muck, rotten turf, wood soil, ashes, etc.) is the best. For field culture set in rows 3 to 3½ feet apart, 15 to 18 inches in rows; for garden 15 inches apart each way, leaving pathway every third row. To produce fine, large fruit, keep in hills, pinching runners off as soon as they appear. Ground should always be kept clean and well cultivated. In winter a covering of leaves, straw or some kind of litter will protect the plants. Do not cover them until ground is frozen, or so deep as to smother the plants, and remove covering before growth starts in spring. Mulching will keep the fruit clean and the soil in good condition through the fruiting season.

The blossoms of those varieties marked with (P) are destitute of stamens and are termed "pistillate," and unless a row of perfect flowering variety is planted at intervals not exceeding about a rod, they will produce imperfect fruit and but little of it; but when properly fertilized as a rule they are the most prolific. Our land is especially suited to the development of strawberry plants, giving us extra fine crowns and roots, our plants weighing two or three times as much as many sent out. Our stocks are pure, each kind kept by itself and cultivated entirely for the production of plants. They are carefully graded, handled and packed, certain to give the best of satisfaction.
